Dear Mr. Cusack,

I am writing this letter in acknowledgment of Mr. Thomas Dolce, who was our liaison between your company and my parish, St. Joseph Roman Catholic Church Stuart, Florida.

We began the pursuit of this campaign in December 2012, when me and my husband Jim, met Mr. Dolce. Our first meeting was to establish whether or not we would be the kind of parishioner to assist our Pastor, Father Noel McGrath to meet his objectives. Tom was kind, engaging and an easy person to speak to. I have been in the banking industry for several decades and would look for people who could connect with people as easily as Tom did with us. Tom asked the right questions, did it with finesse and a sense of humor, obtained the answers he was seeking, and reported the results to Father Noel with great precision, affording him then ability to proceed accordingly.

Mr. Cusack, our campaign carried on successfully and without issue. We were supported, advised, corrected when needed, and to date, our parish is performing positively and proficiently. Tom has moved on to another venue, however, he has offered support if we need it and that is so appreciated!

We are blessed to have such a wonderful parish and so many wonderful people who have supported our campaign. Nobody can do anything without help, and we feel that your organization has lived up to its promises and obligations. We trust that you will continue to do so.

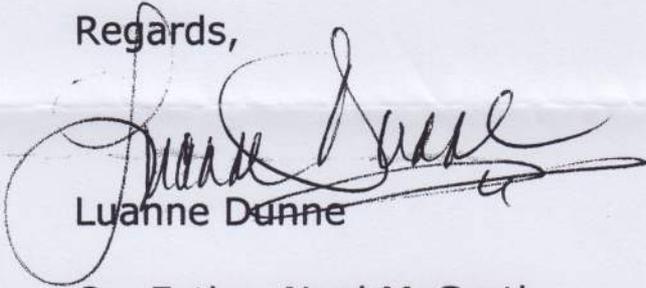

In closing, Tom Dolce has demonstrated his ability to lead, advise, motivate, support, and to do this with grace, humor, and a sense of optimism that affords the parish a feeling of hope, determination and success!

I wish you and your organization much success and prosperity!!

Tom deserves a big "Atta Boy"!! From a fellow Long Islander!!
